If you're looking to taste the best street food in Bangkok, then Bangkok Chinatown is the place for you! There's no better place than the world's biggest Chinatown to experience the mix of Thai and Chinese culture, especially with your taste buds! Let our Local Expert show you where the delicious hidden treasures are in the hidden alleys. Let's go!

Itinerary

18:30

Meet up at MRT Station (Hua Lamphong, Wat Mangkon)

19:00

We'll start the trip by taking you to the numerous food stalls and restaurants hidden in the backstreets of Bangkok Chinatown. Here! Let's taste some amazing Thai-Chinese food and desserts such as noodle, seafood, rice with barbecued pork, roasted duck, custard bun and cold Thai desserts. These are just a few examples!

21:30

After filling your stomach with all the good food and desserts, it's time for us to end the trip... unless you want to drink (at your own expense)!

Please note that this is optional, since alcohol is not included in the trip itself. Should you decide to go drink, the trip will end later, depending on how much or how long you want to drink.

21:30

OPTIONAL: So if you are interested, let's go to Tep Bar (or other interesting bars since there are so many out there) where you will find a very unique range of drinks (the drinks at the bar will be at your own expense). Tep Bar is one of the most famous bars in Chinatown, especially with the young, hip crowd. So this is when you can get to drink cocktails mixed with Thai herbs overlooking the skyline of Old Bangkok. Sounds cool, right?

When we finish drinking, I will send you back to MRT Wat Mangkon Station. Hope you enjoyed the trip, and have a good night!

It's definitely local alright! I will take you to one of the most famous places to grab all the deliciousness in town, which will be in China town. Do a street food-hopping and chill out by Chao Phra Ya riverside.

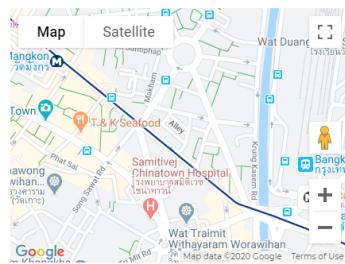

What Makes It Unique?

Rather than randomly pick a food vendor by yourself, now you have me who is a local expert of China town. You will be surprised of what the delight awaits.)

Chinatown was awesome to visit at night! She was very friendly and I enjoyed her company and she picked out some amazing food to eat despite my inability to eat anything with gluten in it. I only wish I hadn't been so tired from flying in earlier that day so I would have been better company.

Eddie was very friendly, kind & knowledgeable of the Chinatown neighborhood. Being a native of Bangkok, he took me to some local favorite eateries that were very savory. It was great to have a local navigate me through this very exciting but busy area. At the end we had a refreshing traditional Thai dessert :) It was an enjoyable experience.
